

Pets change lives
We change theirs

Every slice changes lives

Hit by a car in the run up to Christmas, Bromley was left with life threatening injuries. We were only able to save him by amputating one of his legs and giving him transfusions of both blood and plasma. Thankfully this brave boy is a real fighter and soon learned how to get around on his three legs. Which is handy, because his fab new owner takes him everywhere – even on trips abroad!
