Once you've made your donation, your Regional Fundraiser will send you your own personalised Paws for Tea
thank you certificate.

Thank you so much for requesting your Paws for Tea pack

We're delighted you're joining in the fun, as we cut cake to help cats, dunk digestives for dogs and get pouring for pets. Paws for Tea is a great way to raise money for vulnerable animals, while taking a well-earned break in wonderful company.

So, pick a date and gather family, friends or colleagues together for cake, a cuppa and some great conversation. Whether you want to organise a big do in the office, afternoon tea at home, or a small garden gathering, in this pack you'll find everything you need to get to your paws on to host the purrfect tea party.

How Paws for Tea helps

could keep a cat warm and safe

£10
could buy clippers to trim a dog's claws

£30
could pay for a horse's dental check £100

could provide a health-check for a litter of six puppies

Seven steps to the purrfect party

Preparation is key. So here's how to make your party, tea break or coffee morning a pouring success!

- 1. Sort the basics: Choose the date, time and venue to Paws for Tea.
- 2. Get in touch: Contact our community team at communityfundraising@bluecross.org.uk to let them know about your event.
- 3. Spread the word: Use the invitations in your pack and post on Facebook to get the word out about your event.
- 4. What's on the menu? If you're going to bake, plan your cooking times and the ingredients you'll need, or you could ask your guests to bring an item for everyone to enjoy. How about creating some pet friendly treats?
- 5. Let's decorate: Bring your party to life with our Blue Cross bunting, cake toppers, price tags and posters. You can find all of these in your pack.
- 6. The price is right: Decide how to raise donations – eg, you could charge 50p per item or invite guests to fill a plate for £5.
- 7. Collecting money: Build your cardboard collection box, which you'll find in your pack, to collect cash. You could also set up a JustGiving page for online donations.
